6 MEN, 5 WOMEN ARRESTED

National Park, N. J., Citizens Form Safety Committee and Raid Club. A public safety committee has been formed by the citizens of National Park, N. J., a camp-meeting resort located on the Jersey side of the Delaware opposite League Island, for the purpose of putting an end to lawlessness which is alleged to exist at that place during the summer months.

Many complaints have been made to the authorities. The committee was organized by both the citizens and authorities, and the first round-up was made early yesterday morning, when the headquarters of the Pinola Club, on Wesley avenue, was raided. The club is composed of young men from Philadelphia.

One man escaped and six men and the five women were taken into custody and taken to the office of Justice Bentz, who conducted an early morning hearing. The six men were fined $3 and costs each. The girls were let go with a reprimand.

FIRE AT 12TH AND MARKET

Much Excitement, but Little Blaze in Center of City at Rush Hour. Much excitement was caused but little damage done when fire started in some rubbish in the cellar of the Homestead Farm Lunch Room, 12 North Twelfth street, early this morning.

The blaze was extinguished with little difficulty and traffic was not held up during the early morning rush hours. Frank Phillips, a mounted patrolman on duty a half square from the fire, saw smoke coming from the cellar and turned in an alarm.
